Local men start fishing charter transport bus

Local enterprisers Allen Franklin and Marshall Goin have begun a charter fishing trip transportation service.

The business began with purchase of a bus, which is used to transport groups to charter-boat marinas on the Chesapeake Bay and the York River.

The men charter the boat, and the fisherman pays a flat fee which includes "everything but the day's food," according to Franklin.

The men have run five trips to eastern fishing grounds since starting the business, according to Franklin. "All have been overwhelming successes," he adds. "The fellowship, the chance to sit back and relax, and the fishing have all been great fun," he says.

Franklin notes that he and Goin will only charter boats with reputable captains, and ones that are suitably equipped with good facilities, including bathrooms.

And the boats are large enough to accomodate the groups that ventures forth from Appomattox, Franklin says.

There are two remaining trips scheduled for this year, according to Franklin. One is for bluefish this Saturday, and the other will be a bottom-fishing for next Wednesday. Franklin notes that there are still openings on both trips.

In addition, he says, trips will be arranged for pier fishing and beach romping.

Franklin adds that he and Goin will transport groups to other types of outings upon request.

He notes that plans are underway now for next year's charter trips. "The captains are booked so far in advance, that we have to start soon to reserve the boats for next summer," says Franklin.

He asks that anyone with suggestions as to what types of fishing and what fishing locations should be featured on next year's trips, call him at 352-8718 or Marshall Goin at 352-7710.

Dance studio expands facilities in Lynchburg

Carole Riggs Dance Studios is expanding its facilities to include not only the present locations at 416 Main Street and 616 Leesville Road in Lynchburg, but new locations in Appomattox, Amherst and Altavista. The Appomattox branch will open September 5 at Appomattox Childrens Center, located on Route 460 West of Appomattox next to Lawson Ford.

Classes being offered will include ballet, tap, toe, baton, acrobatics, jazz, modeling, disco-ballroom and piano lessons. Both classes and private lessons will be available. The studios feature reasonable rates, healthy exercise, a step plan of training followed by all teachers, special teaching records, a limit on the number of students in each class, individual attention, and award incentives. Students are accepted from ages 3 thru adult. Carole Riggs Harris, Director, began operation of her school in the Lynchburg area in 1964 in her home. Two years later she opened a studio at 7th and Main offering all forms of dance. In 1974 she acquired the historic Freeman House at 416 Main Street and moved her studio there. Last year the branch at 616 Leesville Road was opened.

The school presently has a staff of ten professional members. Registration is during the month of August by phone with classes beginning in September. Information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Georgia Giles at 352-8911 after 4 p.m.

Editor's Note: The following letter was addressed to Appomattox Mayor Ronald C. Spiggle, with a copy submitted to the Times-Virginian for publication.

Dear Mayor:

At this time, I would like to take the opportunity through you to thank two fine gentlemen who saved the life of a kitten that had wandered or was thrown into an open sewer on Church Street the night of July 31.

Mr. Tony Johnson and Mr. C. R. Wooldridge of Appomattox worked and spent their time until Sunday morning in the effort to release the kitten.

It is a pleasure for me to know that I reside in a town and neighborhood that has such kind and considerate people.

Last but not least, I wish to thank you for giving the kitten a good home.

Yours truly,
Ann Valentine

Carnival location poor

EDITOR:

We, the undersigned, would like to thank the local officials, especially the Commissioner of Revenue, for assuring us three years ago that the carnival, if it came back to Appomattox, would be put in another location.

Each year for the past three years, it has been set up almost in my front yard. My wife and I both work. We get up at 5:30 and believe me, this is not easy to do when you have something like this with all the noise and the lights, especially the drinking, and foul language, until after midnight. It makes it hard to sleep.

To make matters worse, they have put up two Winston Churchills (outhouses) how would you like to have them in your front yard with the smell? And they look awful.

We have lived at our present address for 17 years. We live here because we want to, not because we have to. We do a lot of business in Appomattox. I think I have some good friends in Appomattox, businessmen, lawyers, doctors and the Commissioner of Revenue. I wonder how they would like to have a carnival in their front yard?

We are not trying to keep the carnival out of Appomattox We believe a more suitable location could be found.

We thank you very much.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crowe, Jr.
